

is because of the great warrior-prophet whose character is so far removed from that of the Prophet of Nazareth and his holy religion.

SUGGESTIONS FOR USING THE QUESTIONS

Most of these questions are thought questions. That is, they require for their answers some original thinking. This form of question has been chosen for insertion in the text-book (1) because questions which constitute a mere memory test of the facts of the text can easily be constructed by any leader or member who makes an outline of the principal facts, and (2) because mere memory questions, although they have their uses, yield far less than thought questions either in mental development or in permanent impression. In some cases complete answers will be found in the text-book; usually statements that will serve as a basis for inference; but a few questions appeal solely to the general knowledge and common sense of the student. The greatest sources of inspiration and growth will be, not what the text-book adds to the student, but what the student adds to the text-book; the former is only a means to the latter.

In using these questions, therefore, let the leader first gather from the chapter or from previous chapters all that relates to the subject. It will be found profitable to jot down this material, so that it will be all under the eye at once; then think, using freely all the
