

The Answer
of Sacrificial Love

In view of such an attitude on the part of some of the leaders of Islam, Christendom must answer it with the old story of the gospel, and in the spirit of Jesus Christ who prayed for those that nailed him to the cross: "Father forgive them for they know not what they do." The unselfishness of sacrificial love must be manifested in the work of missions, that we may win the love of men like Abd ul Hak, in spite of their hatred toward us. We must,

"Through the promise on God's pages,
Through his work in history's stages,
Through the cross that crowns the ages,
Show his love to them."

How Faith
can be Triumphant

Islam as a religion is doomed to fade away in time before the advance of humanity, civilization, and enlightenment; but whether its place will be taken by atheism, by some new false religion, or by the faith of Christ, depends, humanly speaking, upon the measure of our devotion to our Lord and our consciousness of the Moslem's need of him. There are many factors in this great problem of Moslem evangelization. Whether we look at the lost opportunities because of neglect in the past, or turn to the greater opportunities of to-day; whether we consider the extent of Islam, or its character, the problem is so colossal that we are shut up
