

- P
- Pagan, forces in early Arabia, 7, 10; peoples now related to Islam's government and growth, 178, 179
- Palmer, Qur'an, quoted, 110
- Pamphlet, an Arabic, 98
- Pan-Islamic Society of London, the, 128
- Pan-Islamism, 181, 182; perils in, 183
- Pantheon, the Arabian, 7
- Parable of the locusts, the, 184
- Paradise, the Moslem, 17, 49, 66
- Pearl merchant's generosity, a, 50
- Pearse, Mr. George, 152
- "People of the Book, The," 8, 194
- Persia, conditions in, 122, 127, 177; Islam in, 42; missionary college needed in, 196; opportunity in, 197
- Peter the Venerable, one of two early missionaries to Islam, 139
- Pfander, Karl Gottlieb, 146, 147
- Philippines, conditions in, 33, 91; special claim on American churches, 176
- Pilgrimage to Mecca, details of the, 76; duty to make the, 78
- Pilgrims from Mecca, 47
- Pillar saint, the, 9
- Political, changes and present divisions of Islam a mission opportunity, 95-98, 192; control of peoples not assuring their conversion to Islam, 38; loss of power sometimes promotes progress of the faith, 50
- Polygamy, 116
- Polyglot Islam, 93
- Polytheists to be slain, 37
- Population, estimate of the Mohammedan, 88, 89
- Post, Dr. George E., quoted, 184, 195
- Prayer in Islam, 69-72
- Predestination, 67, 68
- Press, enslaved under purely Mohammedan rule, 192; value of the Christian, as used at Constantinople and Beirut, 193, 194; work of the Moslem, as seen in Egypt and Persia, 127, 171, 181
- Pride in his creed and his prophet, the Moslem's, 51
- Prisoners slain without giving quarter, 15
- Problem, Mohammed's character, a, 18
- Professor in Bokhara high school, testimony of a, 157
- Progress and Islam incompatible, 129
- Propagation of the new faith, 3
- Prophet, claims for and against Mohammed, 18
- Publishing firms in Cairo, 171
- Punjab, the, 47
- Purification, directions for legal, 71